

Online

go to couriermail.com.au/letters to register your view

email

write to letters@couriermail.com.au
Text only, no attachments

fax

talkingpoint editor The Courier-Mail 07 3666 8625

mail

GPO Box 130, Brisbane 4001 or
cnr Campbell St and Mayne Rd,
Bowen Hills 4006

Place & Time

Bulcock Beach, Caloundra, 2pm yesterday

Cast your vote at couriermail.com.au/yoursay

TODAY'S QUESTION

DO YOU USE TECHNOLOGY TO WORK OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE?

DAMIEN McPHERSON

30, MECHANIC, CALOUNDRA

No, I'm a mechanic so my job doesn't require me to use technology outside work hours.

ELLEY JOHNSTON

29, TEACHER,
KINGS BEACH

I use it a lot because I'm a teacher so I'm constantly preparing for lessons.

BEN MURPHY

25, CARPENTER,
DICKY BEACH

Yes, I definitely do - I use my laptop and smart phone for about six hours a week outside the workplace.

TEGAN HAMILTON

23, PROPERTY MANAGER,
WURTULLA

Yes, it's definitely not an 8 1/2-hour work day.

ROBIN CLARKE

46, LIFESAVER,
CALOUNDRA

Yes, I probably spend about 10 hours a week checking emails on my phone and home computer.

Saturday's question: Should the Gold Coast host the next Commonwealth Games? YES 45% NO 55%

couriermail.com.au

THE FRESNO BEE, CALIFORNIA
Women fans of the Fresno State Bulldogs football team are putting a new twist on fan T-shirts. They are buying the expensive official shirts, only to rip, cut or stretch them into new-design items so they can look stylish and still wear their allegiance on their sleeve.

THE DESERT SUN, PALM SPRINGS
Federal police in the US say the legalisation of cannabis planned under Proposition 19 would hinder their drug-fighting efforts. And local businesses get a welcome boost from the most unlikely of places: a well-mannered convention of bikers.